Reviews-on-Cards

The Unique Book-Review Subscription Service

Here is the service that hundreds of librarians have asked us to supply:

Every book review in the Library Journal and/or Junior Libraries reproduced in full on a 3 x 5 card and rushed to you as each issue goes to press!

If you can use a cumulating file of the new and forthcoming books, it's logical to start with Lj, since Lj covers more books by far (nearly 4000 a year) than any other service—and it covers them promptly.

Amazingly Flexible

Do you often search through several issues of Lj for a particular review that you wish to read again? With a cumulative file of REVIEWS-ON-CARDS you have it in a jiffy.

Do you often wonder if you have noted all the important new titles in history, economics, biography, juveniles, etc.? A subject file of REVIEWS-ON-CARDS will help you to be sure.

Do you need a handy information file for your borrowers? A patron's file of REVIEWS-ON-CARDS can be your answer.

Do you have a stack of Lj's on your desk for reference when you are buying the books for your library? A date file of REVIEWS-ON-CARDS will simplify your task.

These are only four of the advantages of REVIEWS-ON-CARDS for cutting down the work load in your library—you'll find many other ways to suit this flexible service to your own particular needs.

How Reviews-on-Cards Operates

A 3 x 5 card—like those shown reduced—is made up for each review appearing in the Library Journal and Junior Libraries—note space left at top for you to add your own headings if you wish, and verso left blank for additional notations.

The complete set of cards will be mailed to you first-class or special-handling to reach you no later than the corresponding issue of Lj or JrL.

You can subscribe in any of three ways, depending on the service best suited to your needs:

1. The full service—both Lj and JrL reviews (about 3800 cards annually): $58 for the year.
2. Library Journal adult reviews only (about 2700 annually; 22 mailings): $40 for the year.
3. Junior Libraries reviews only (about 1100 annually, in 9 mailings): $18 for the year.

Subscribe now to REVIEWS-ON-CARDS—the great new Bowker boon to libraries! Please be sure to indicate the service you wish. Further details and specimen cards on request.
